So famous.
So unknown.

Hola, Mundo soy la muy famosa y muy desconocida ciudad de Sevilla

Soy una ciudad de ciudades, síntesis del mundo, soy lo que se ve y lo que no se ve. Soy mis monumentos y mis parques y jardines, una ciudad que se abraza al río para abrirse a un paisaje inabarcable. Desde la Catedral a las Setas, del Monasterio de la Cartuja a la Casa de Pilatos, de Antiquarium al Palacio de Dueñas, mis calles y plazas son un reguero de cultura, patrimonio, historia y buenas historias. Recórrelas, descúbrelas y si quieres más, encuéntrame en visitasevilla.es.

Museo Arqueológico

A journey through the civilizations of Seville. The Archaeological Museum of Seville has its origins in the late nineteenth century, when a public collection of antiquities was created, most of them extracted from the Roman city Itálica. In the twentieth century it is consolidated and expanded with the transfer from the old Convent of La Merced to its current headquarters: the Fine Arts pavilion, created by Aníbal González.

Centro Cerámica Santa Ana

Among other things, Triana is famous for its tradition of ceramics and pottery. To learn about its history and evolution we recommend a visit to the Triana Ceramic Centre, housed in a former ceramics factory. In this centre, you can visit the factory as well as a permanent exhibition of ceramics made in the different artistic styles. There are also temporary exhibitions and a section dedicated to the Triana district.
