

4 Different ways to experience Seville's Holy Week

#SSantaSevilla18

Sevilla
Turismo

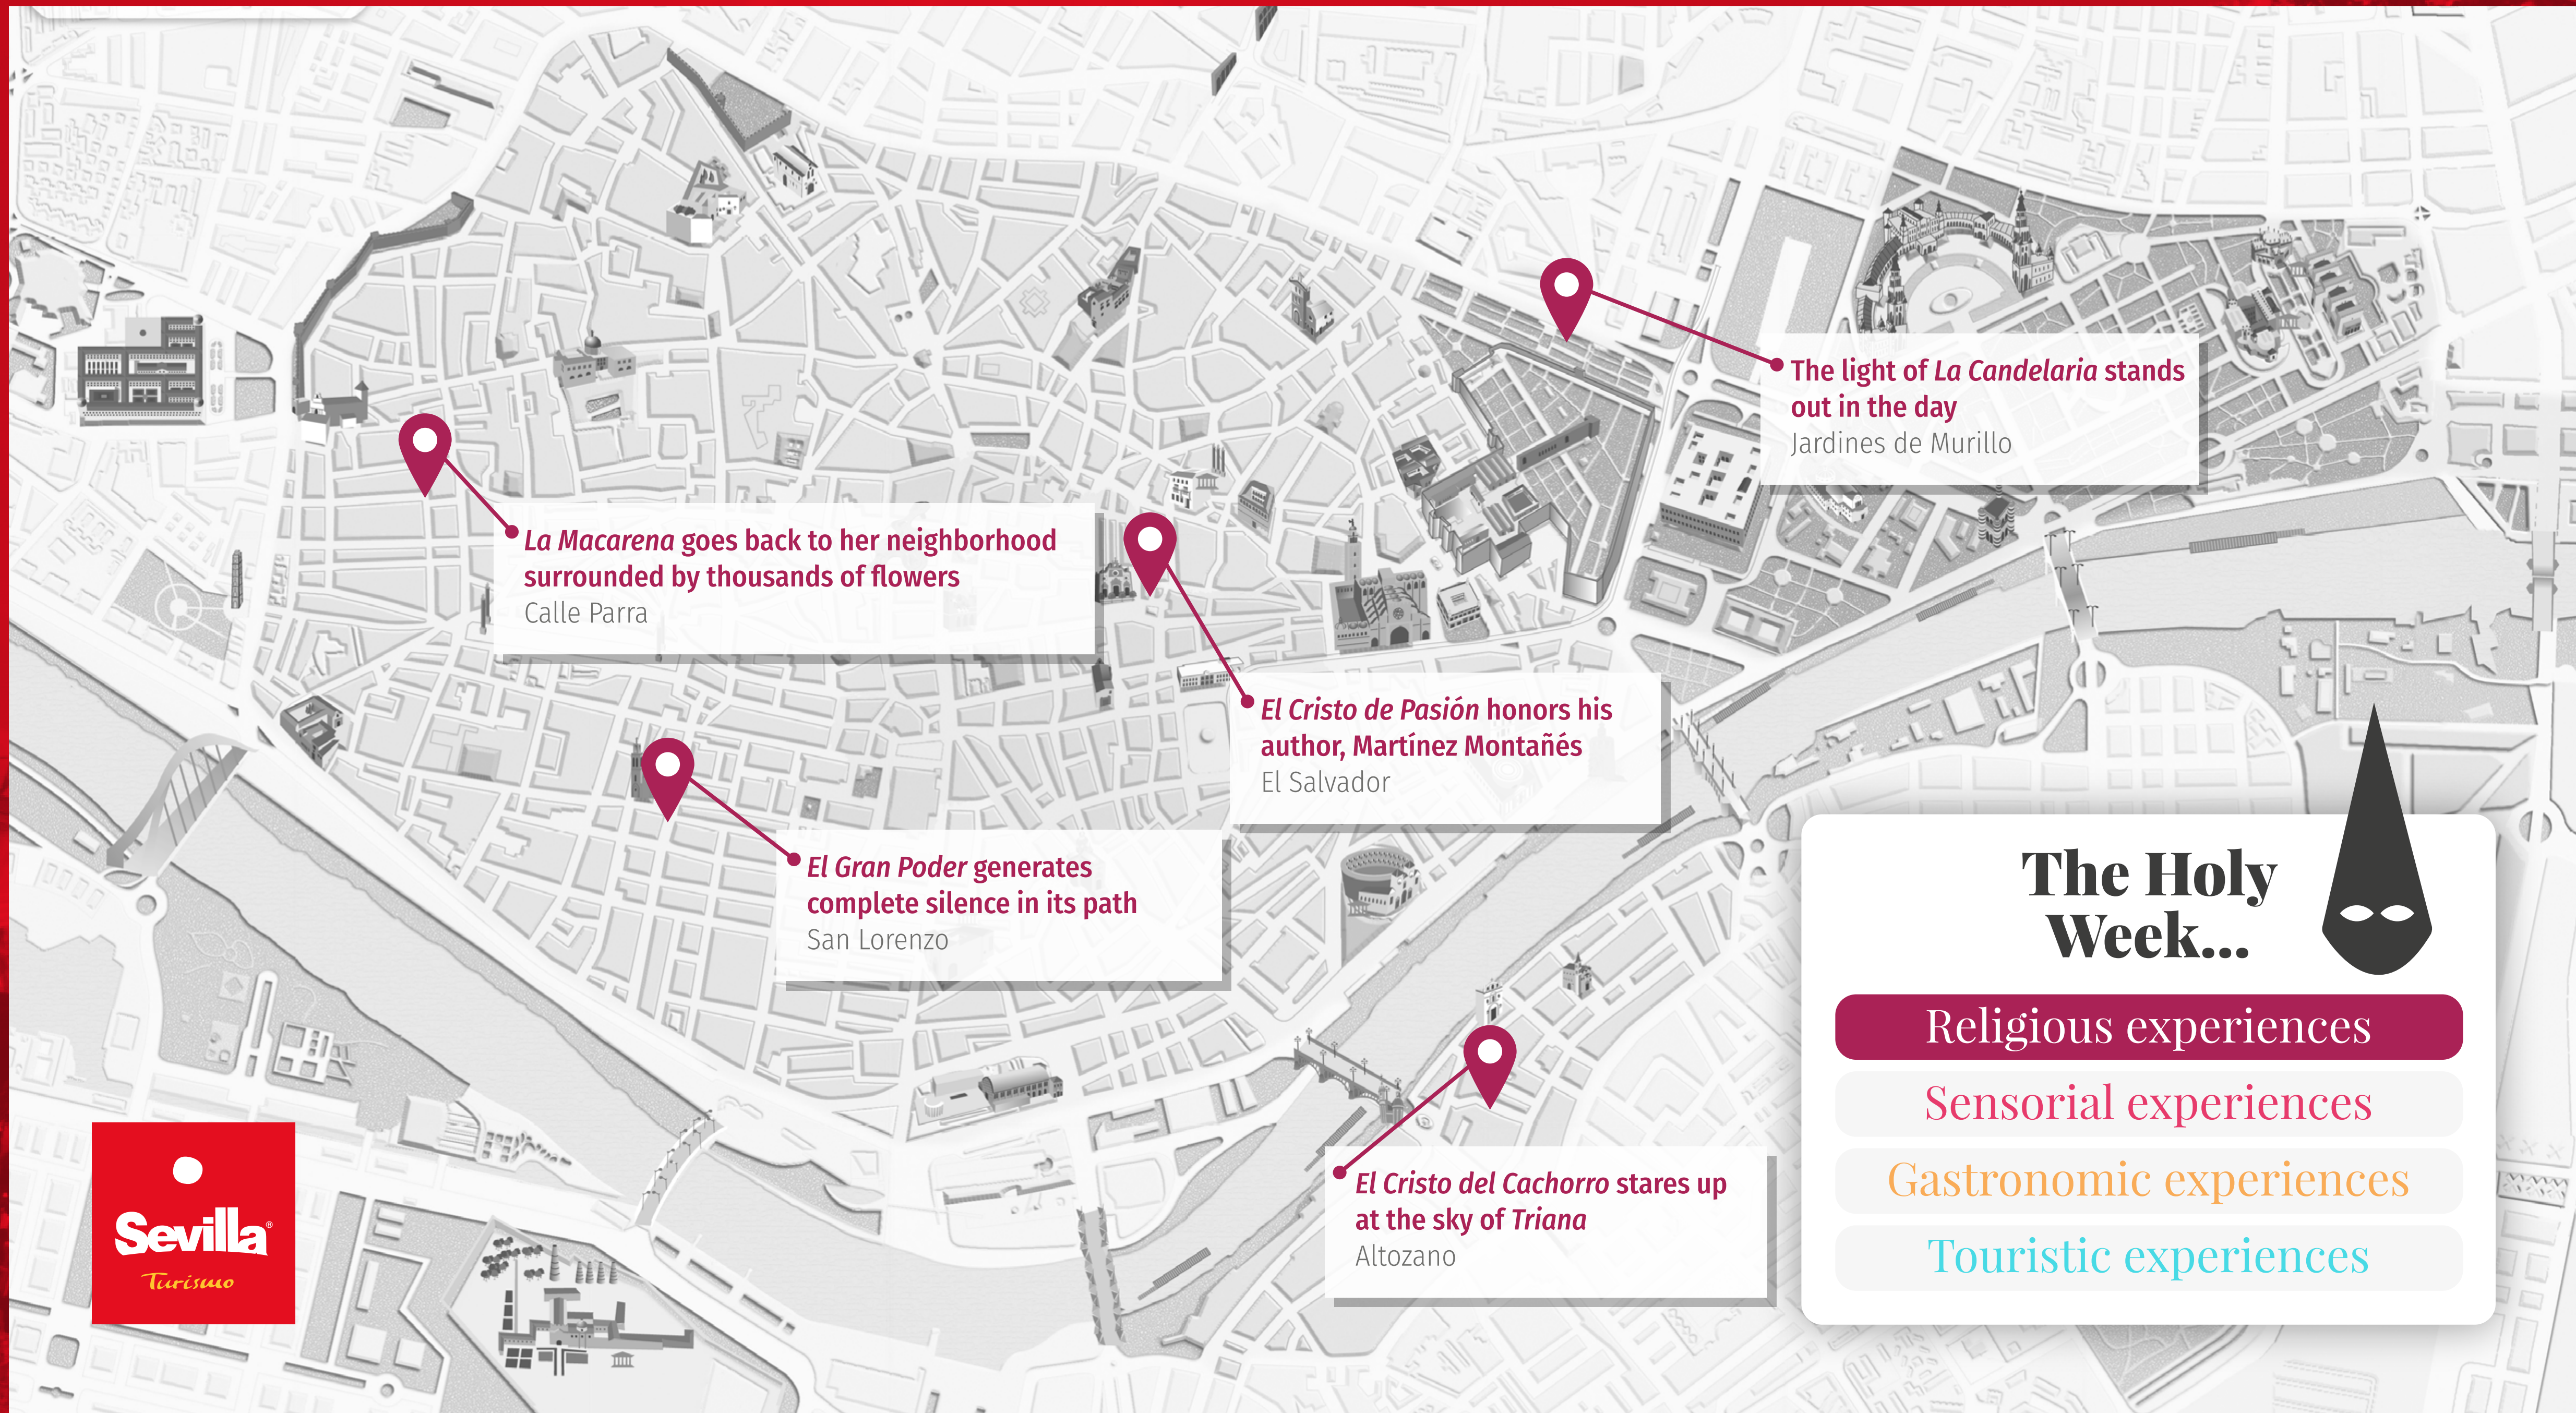

The Holy Week...

Religious experiences

Sensorial experiences

Gastronomic experiences

Touristic experiences

La Macarena goes back to her neighborhood surrounded by thousands of flowers
Calle Parra

The light of La Candelaria stands out in the day
Jardines de Murillo

El Cristo de Pasión honors his author, Martínez Montañés
El Salvador

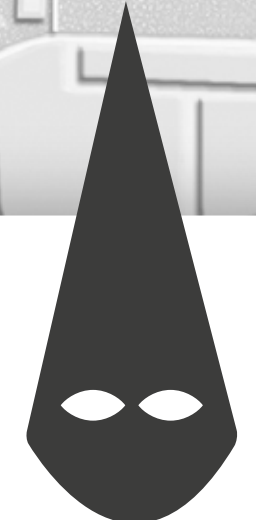

El Gran Poder generates complete silence in its path
San Lorenzo

El Cristo del Cachorro stares up at the sky of Triana
Altozano

The Holy Week...

Religious experiences

Sensorial experiences

Gastronomic experiences

Touristic experiences

Listen for a second,
can you hear the music?
Pza. Cristo de Burgos

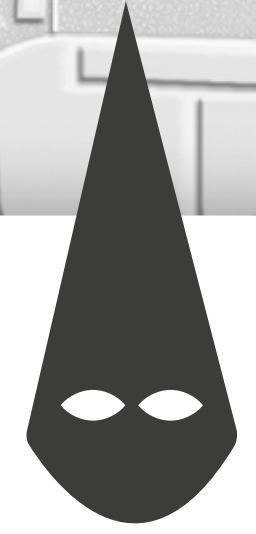

Streets, squares and hearts are filled with azahar, the scent of the orange blossom
Patio de Banderas

Feel the intense
smell of incense
El Salvador

The sound of the hooves
of horses on cobblestones
Calle Antonia Díaz

You will feel the nice breeze
as you cross the river
Puente de Triana

The Holy Week...

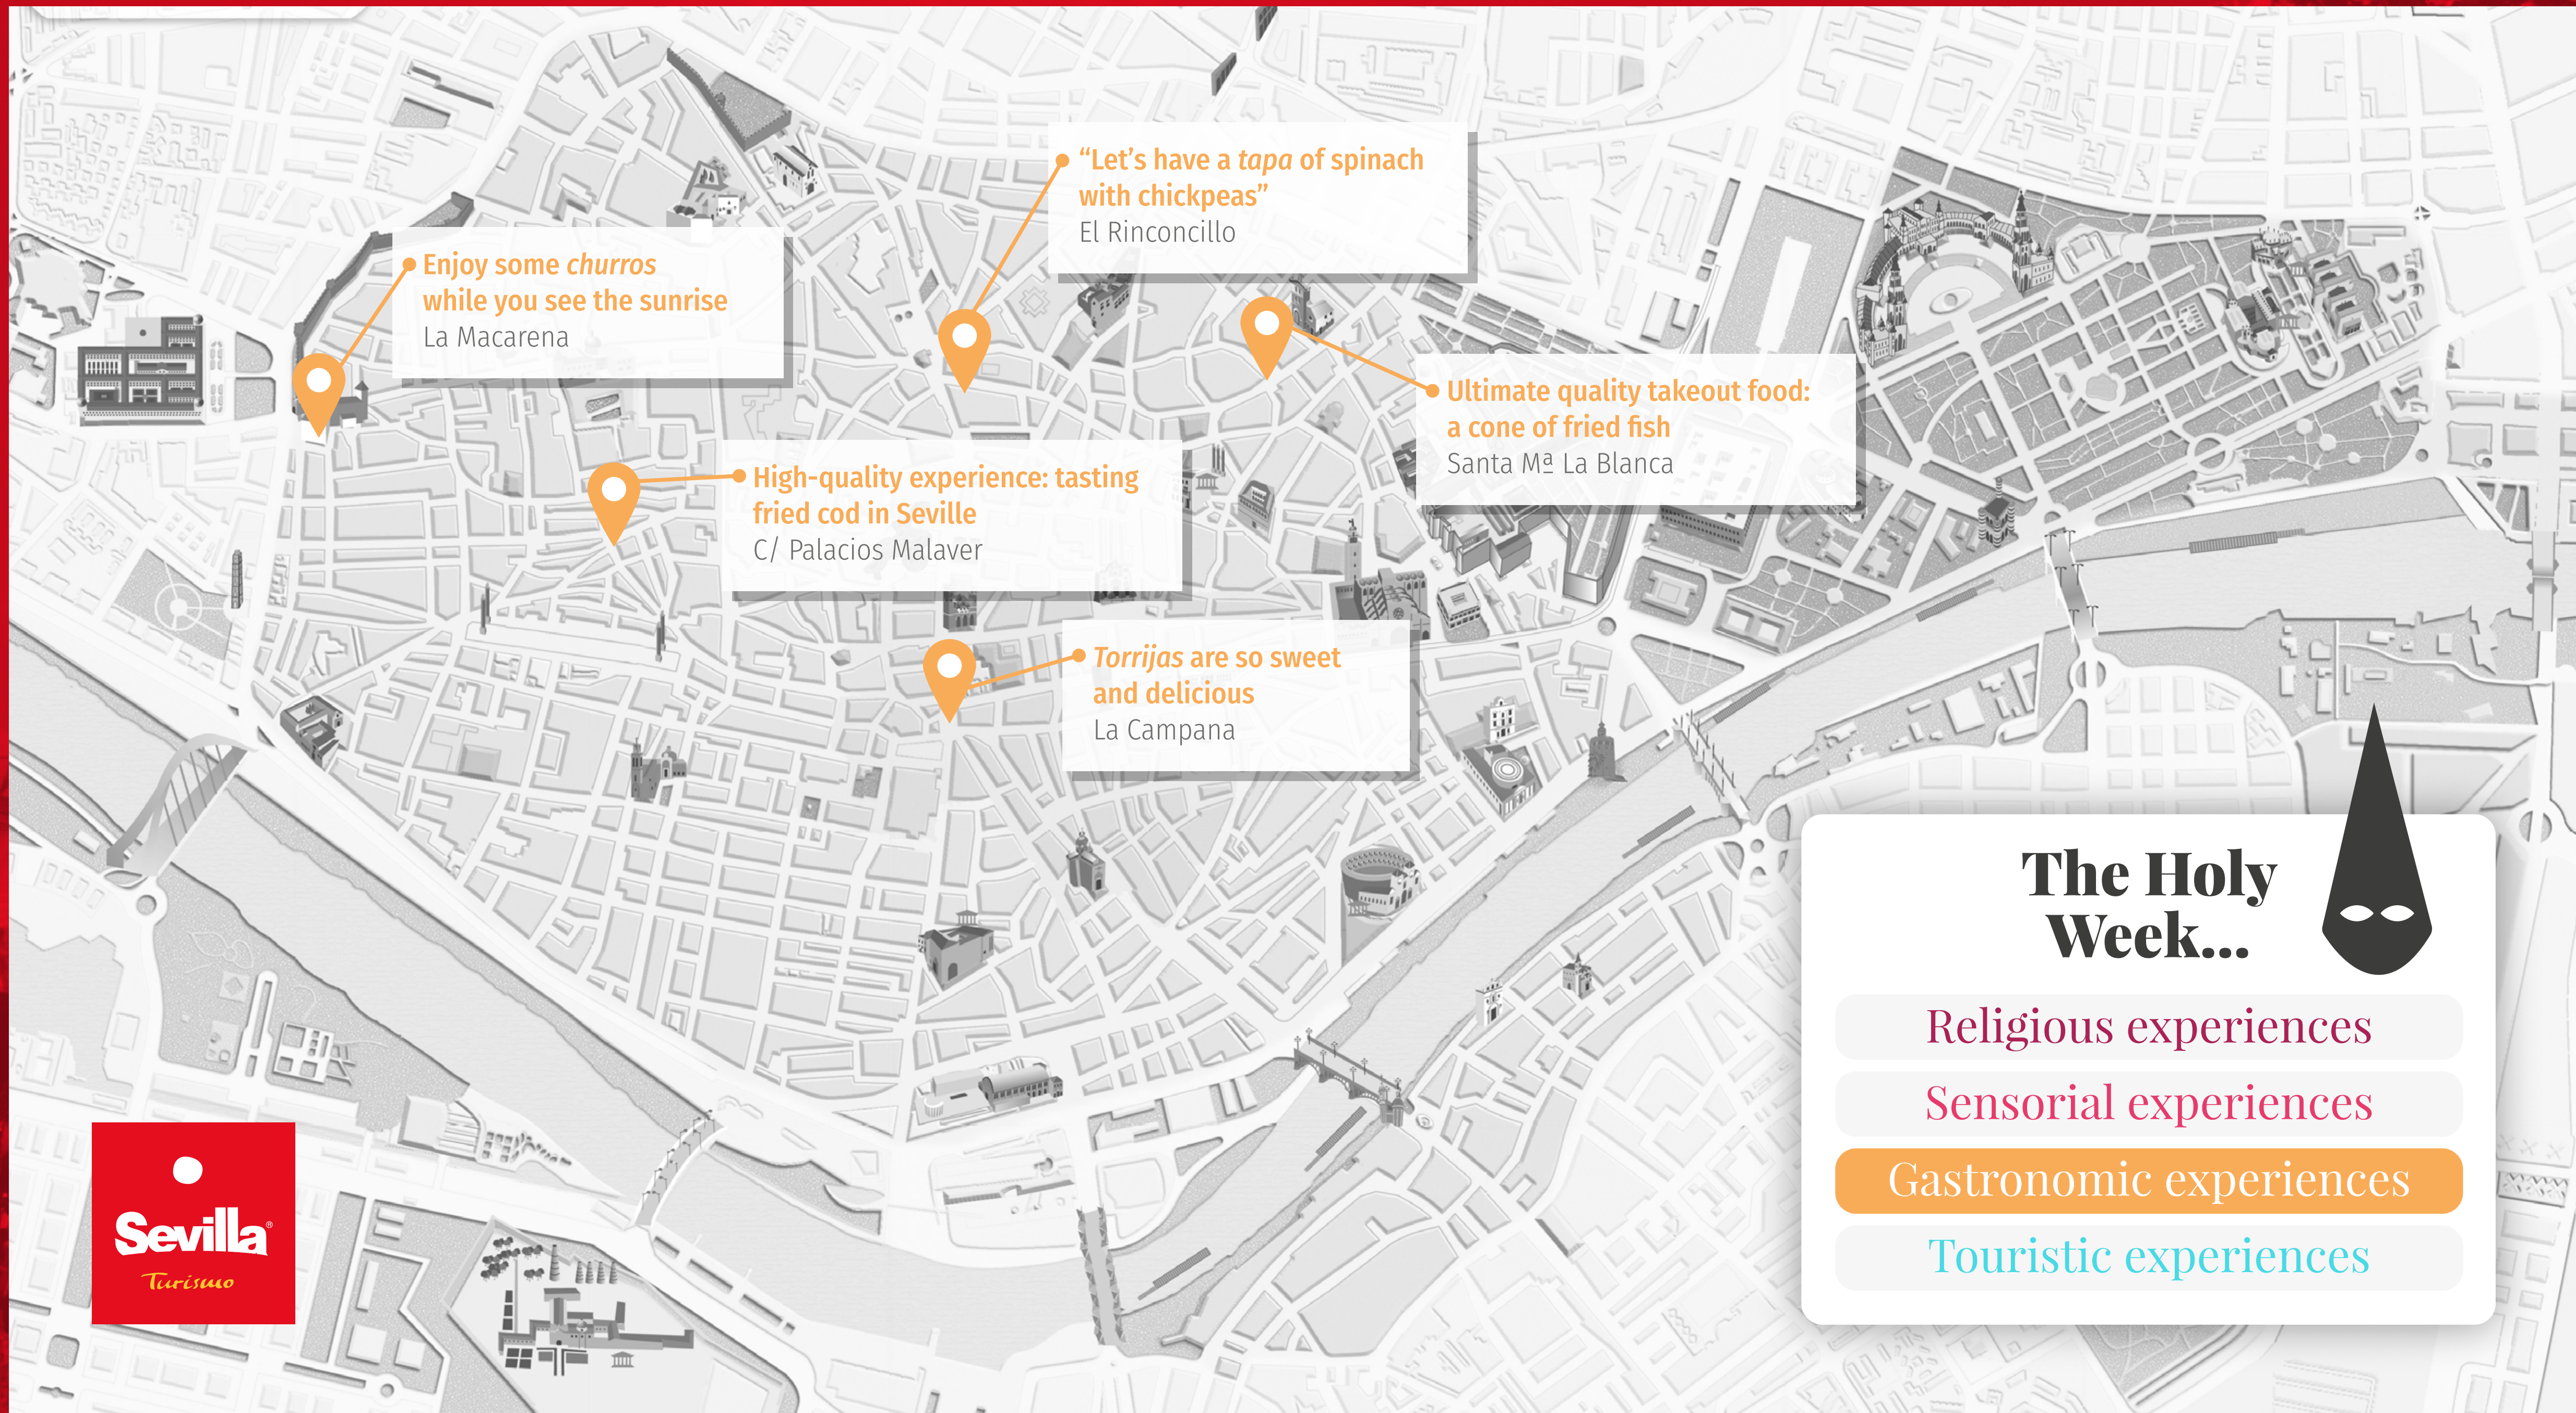

Religious experiences

Sensorial experiences

Gastronomic experiences

Touristic experiences

● Enjoy some churros while you see the sunrise
La Macarena

● "Let's have a tapa of spinach with chickpeas"
El Rinconcillo

● High-quality experience: tasting fried cod in Seville
C/ Palacios Malaver

● Ultimate quality takeout food: a cone of fried fish
Santa Mª La Blanca

● Torrijas are so sweet and delicious
La Campana

The Holy Week...

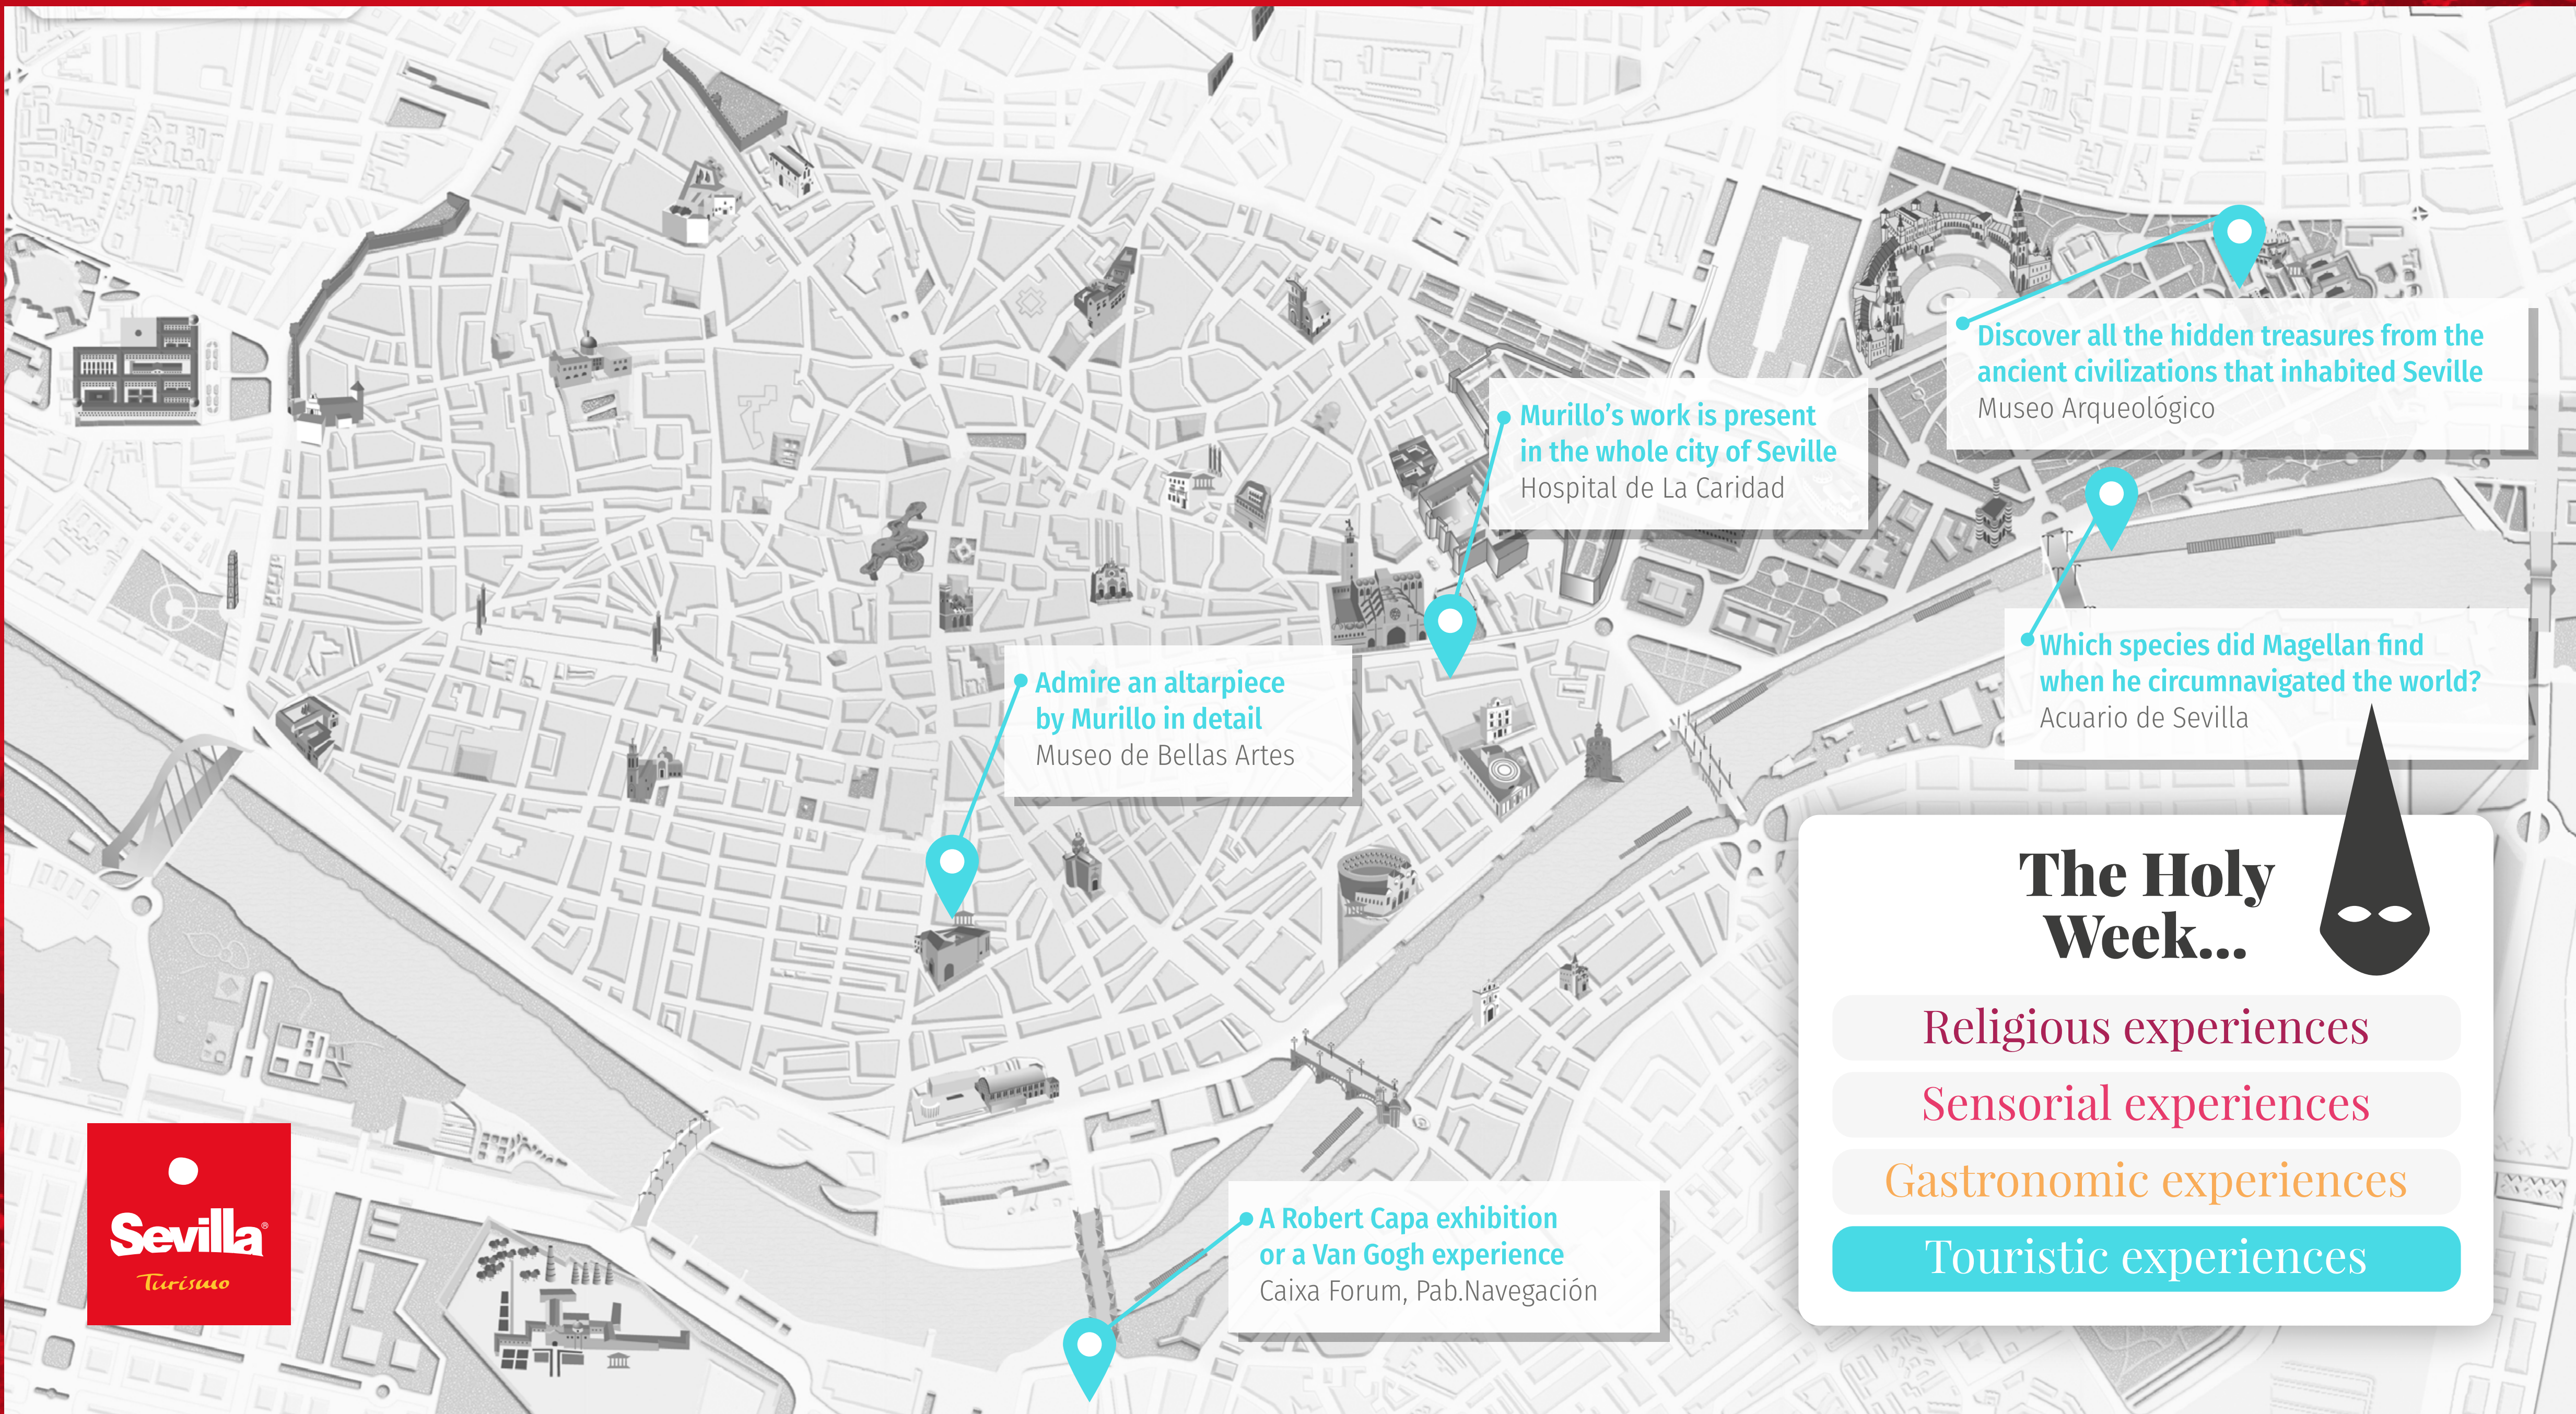

Religious experiences

Sensorial experiences

Gastronomic experiences

Touristic experiences

Discover all the hidden treasures from the ancient civilizations that inhabited Seville
Museo Arqueológico

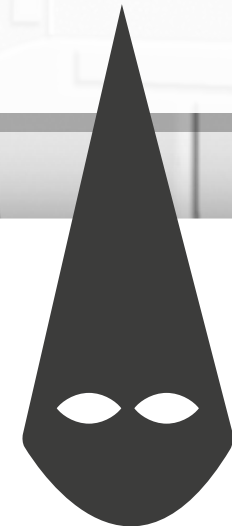

Murillo's work is present in the whole city of Seville
Hospital de La Caridad

Which species did Magellan find when he circumnavigated the world?
Acuario de Sevilla

Admire an altarpiece by Murillo in detail
Museo de Bellas Artes

A Robert Capa exhibition or a Van Gogh experience
Caixa Forum, Pab.Navegación

The Holy Week...

Religious experiences

Sensorial experiences

Gastronomic experiences

Touristic experiences

