ANTIQUARIUM

1. Venue Overview:

The Antiquarium is an underground space located in the emblematic Metropol Parasol, popularly known as the Mushrooms. In this museum and archaeological site past and present come together, providing visitors with a meeting place in the centre of Seville.

A unique space of over 4,000 m², made up of significant Roman, Visigothic and Islamic remains in the same site. The Antiquarium is located in the heart of the new centre of Seville and it has several distinct areas, such as:

- Museum and Archaeological Site, surrounded by a glass wall which envelops the whole space. It features hanging walls and skylights reconstructing, together with the other elements, what the spaces where our ancestors lived felt like at the time.
- Additionally, there is a perfectly fitted multipurpose room, an area independent from the Museum, where various temporary art exhibits are scheduled all year round.

The main hall that gives access to the various spaces of the Antiquarium has glass flooring, from which one can see the various remains spread out across the large Archaeological Site.

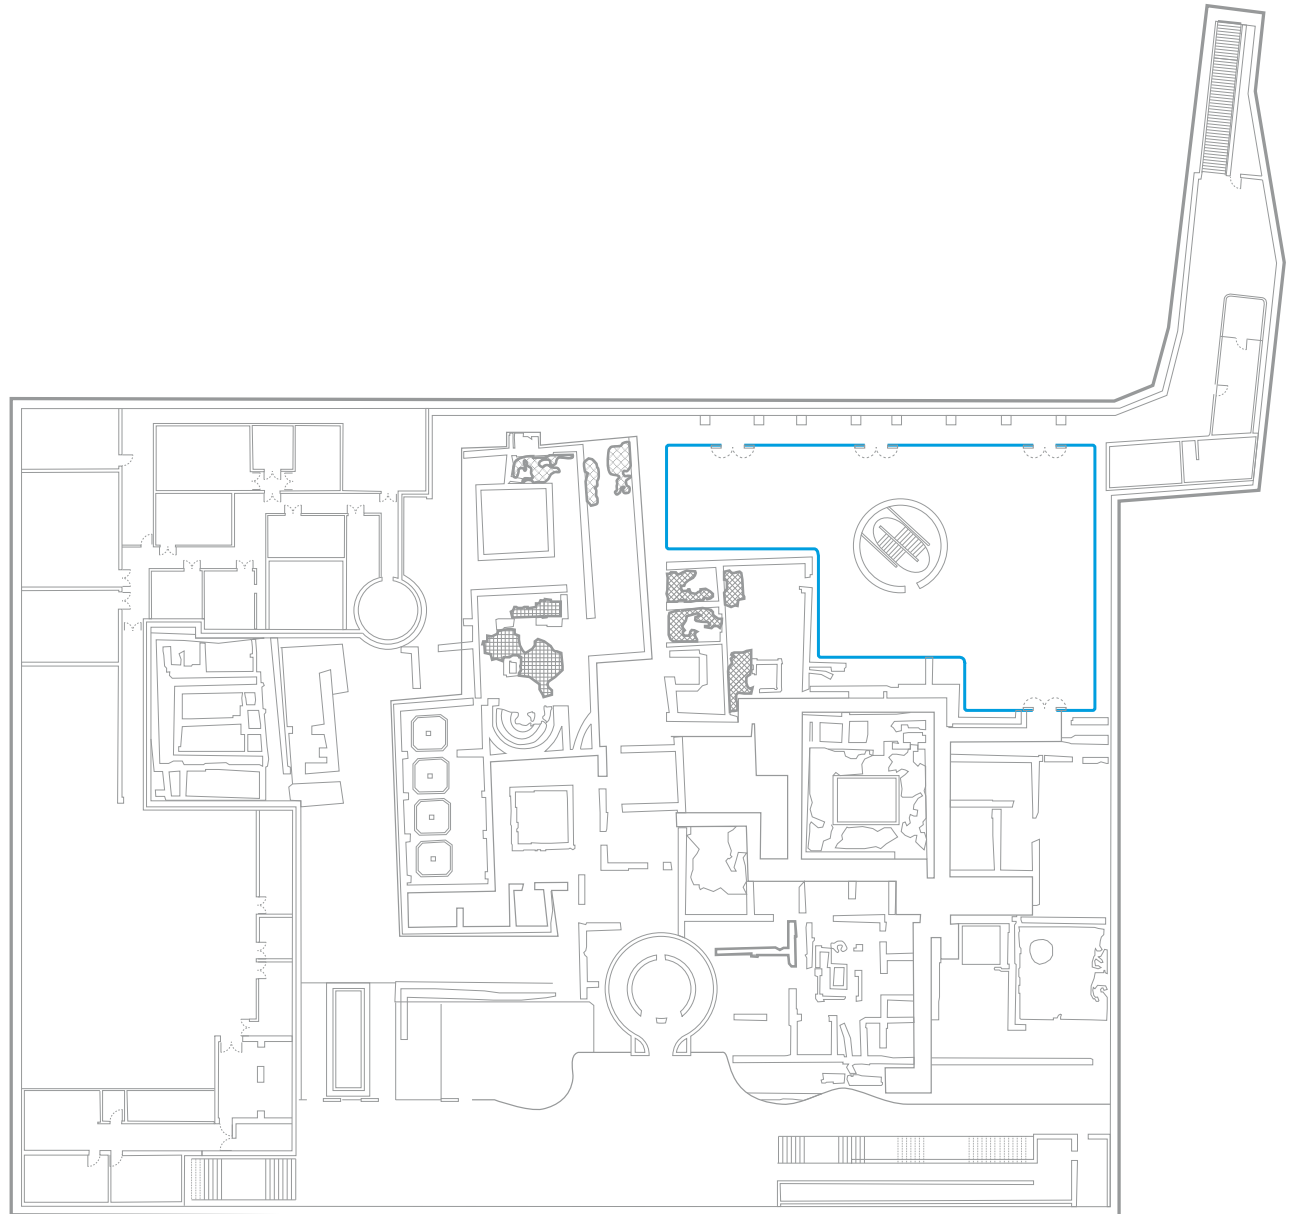

2. Venue

The Antiquarium Hall is a 700m² multipurpose space located in the heart of the new centre of Seville with state-of-the-art audiovisual technology, furnishings and screens, making it highly suitable to hold all type of events.

This space can be customised for various types of events such as product launches, cocktail receptions, meetings, congresses, conferences, private functions, award ceremonies and tributes, corporate annual general meetings and other gatherings.

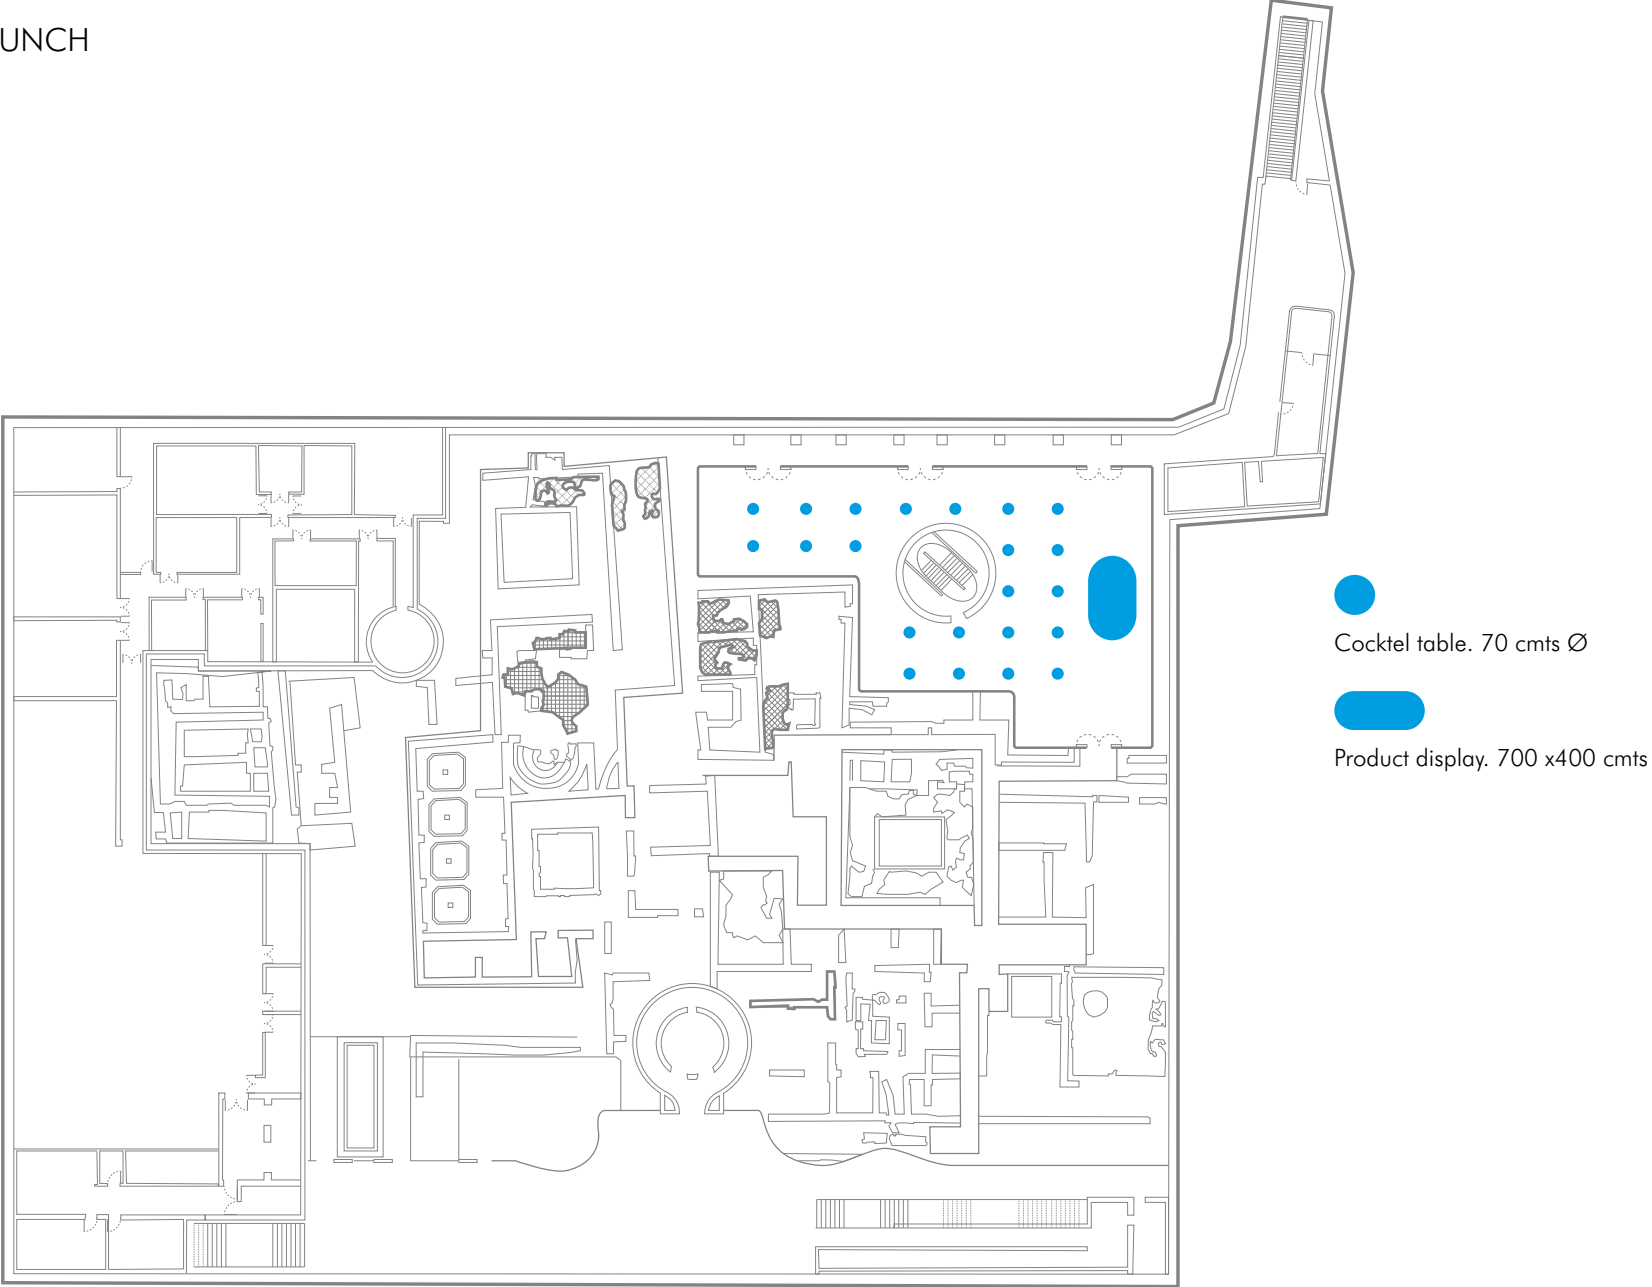

It is possible to set up theatre layouts with a stage or head table, a banquet, or any other layout appropriate to the space.

The maximum capacity of the venue is 160 people. Access to the premises is adapted for people with disabilities.
